emotional and spiritual health

EMOTIONAL-SPIRITUAL-MENTAL ASPECTS:

Each of the five blends contained in LeEverlasting is in the mid to very high frequency range. Each one targets a specific range of emotions. Blending these five blends together into another essential oil blend is an amazing example of synergy. LeEverlasting is a lower frequency (physical range) blend which displays the ability to act on the emotions. A person using LeEverlasting receives the emotional impact of each separate high frequency blend. At the same time, the lower frequency of the whole carries the healing more deeply into the physical body. The negative emotions are released clear down to the cellular level. This amazing mixture relieves feelings of hopelessness and self-pity.

PHYSICAL ASPECTS:

LeEverlasting promotes a most wonderful relaxation that is followed by high levels of optimism, vigor, and energy.
