Cistus

Cistus has a beautiful aroma. The aroma is floral with a hint of honey. Cistus would make a unique and beautiful perfume, in my opinion. The aroma of cistus is something you will either just love or really dislike. Cistus is stimulating to the upper quadrant of the brain and to the senses, amplifying our sense of touch, hearing, and sight. Cistus is useful diffused during meditation or when pondering deeply. Cistus is used in skin care regimens, for minimization of wrinkles. Used for skin disorders such as psoriasis and eczema.
