Pine Needle

Pine oil is useful for moving on from regrets and self-judgment. It can bring relief from feeling the necessity to "carry the whole world" on our own shoulders. Helps us to establish a healthy respect for our own needs, including the need to rest and rejuvenate from time to time. Pine is also for those who confuse the acquisition of more and more "facts," as wisdom. Increases metabolism and nutrient absorption. Pine has a beneficial action on both the kidneys and the intestines, aiding them in their function of removing cellular waste and toxins from the body.
